II. ACADEMIC CODE

- A. Registration Practice and Procedure
1. Registration. Students are automatically registered in their first semester. For each subsequent semester, it is the responsibility of each student to successfully register for his or her courses and scheduled times for registration must be adhered to in all cases.

2. Limited Enrollment Courses. An instructor may limit enrollment in an elective course, seminar, or a special course by receiving permission from the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) Office.
3. Priority for Registration of Courses. All students are subject to rules on sequencing of courses for their particular program.
4. Add/Drop Period and Withdrawal from Courses
  - a. General Rule. All graduate students must receive approval from the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) Office to add or drop courses at any time, including during the designated Add/Drop period. Such approval will generally be granted when the student's proposed addition or deletion will not interfere with his or her educational objectives or timely graduation. The last day to drop a class is the last day of classes.
  - b. Special Rule for Externship Programs. A student may drop an externship program during or after Add/Drop only with permission of the Assistant Dean. Permission to drop an externship program will be granted only in cases of exceptional hardship to a student caused by circumstances beyond the student's control, such as illness requiring a reduced course load.
  - c. Report of W for Dropped Course. The Registrar shall record a "W" for any course dropped by a student after the Add/Drop period as designated by the school.
  - d. Forfeiture of Tuition for Withdrawal From Class After Add/Drop. Tuition for any class from which a student withdraws after Add/Drop shall be forfeited in full, including courses from which the student has been involuntarily withdrawn. A student who adds a course as a replacement for the course from which the student withdraws shall be responsible for payment of tuition for the course added.
5. Other Academic Programs
  - a. General Rule. A student shall not enroll in another academic program or a joint degree program without first obtaining the written approval of the Assistant Dean.

B. Academic Credits & Course Load

1. Academic Credits

- a. General Rule. A student may satisfy the academic credit graduation requirements of the Code by earning classroom credits and directed research credits.
- b. Limitations. Academic credit is subject to the following limitations:
  - i. Course Load Limitation. Registration for courses for which academic credit is available is subject to course load limitations imposed by Section (II)(B)(2) of the Code.
  - ii. Non-Classroom, Clinical, Externship, Experiential Activities. Participation in non-classroom, clinical, externship, or experiential activities are not eligible for academic credit towards a degree.
  - iii. Directed Research Credit. Student must receive approval from the Assistant Dean and the supervising faculty member to receive credit for directed research. Graduate students will generally be limited to a total of two directed research credits. The Assistant Dean may grant a request for additional directed research credit upon approval of a supervising faculty member and a showing of good cause.

2. Course Load

- a. MJ and Graduate-Level Certificates. The normal academic course load is 3 to 15 credit hours per semester. Students are considered full-time when registered for 6 or more credits in the fall and spring semesters and 2 or more credits in the summer term. Students registered for 3 or more credits but less than 6 credits are considered at least half-time in the fall and spring semesters.
- b. MJ in Corporate and Business Law/Master in Business Administration (MJ/MBA) dual degree. The normal academic course load is 3 to 15 credit hours per semester. Students are considered full-time when registered for 6 or more credits in the fall and spring semesters and 2 or more credits in the summer term. Students registered for 3 or more credits but less than 6 credits are considered at least half-time in the fall and spring semesters. Students wishing to attend the MJ/MBA program full time (12 credits per semester) must have advising prior to entering the program as not all of the MJ courses are offered each semester.

C. Examination and Grading

1. Grading System

- a. Grades Issued After August 20, 1989. The grade structure for all registered course work after the summer term, 1989, is as follows:

A = 4.000	C+ = 2.300	F = 0.000
A- = 3.700	C = 2.000	W = Withdrawal
B+ = 3.300	C- = 1.700	AU = Audit Only
B = 3.000	D+ = 1.300	I = Incomplete
B- = 2.700	D = 1.000	P = Pass

GRADE	LETTER GRADE
92-100	A
91-92	A-
89-90	B+
83-88	B
81-82	B-
79-80	C+
73-78	C
71-72	C-
69-70	D+
60-68	D
0-59	F

- b. Pass/Fail Courses. In certain courses, a grade of "P" (Pass) is assigned if the student satisfactorily completes the course. A "P" does not have a grade point or other equivalent. A grade of "F" (Fail) in a pass/fail course is treated as the letter grade of "F."
2. Late Policy. Each week student assignments must be submitted/completed by 11:59 p.m. ET each Sunday. No late work will be accepted. There are absolutely no exceptions to this, other than a serious exigent circumstance (personal injury; serious illness, injury or death of a member of the student's immediate family; and any other similar event beyond the student's control which prevents the student from completing the course work. Documentation may be required and must be provided in a timely manner.). Students who have incurred an exigent circumstance as defined in this section, may request an extension from the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) office. If the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) office approves a student's request for an extension, student will be given a reasonable amount of time at the professor's discretion to complete the work. If the assignment is not submitted by the extended deadline, it will not be accepted and student will receive a 0 for the assignment.

3. Grade Point Average

- a. Computation of Grade Point Average. The grade point average of a student is determined by multiplying the numeric equivalent of each letter grade received in each course by the number of credit hours assigned to each course. The product is divided by the number of attempted credits to arrive at the student's grade point average for the semester.
- b. Attempted Credits. For purposes of this section, "attempted credits" means the total number of credit hours for which a student is enrolled for a semester. Credit hours attributable to courses graded on a pass/fail basis shall be included in the total number of attempted credits only if the student fails to receive a passing grade in the course.

4. Grade Changes

- a. General Rule. Any grade for a course, seminar or special course submitted by an instructor is final when received by the Registrar and may not be changed by the instructor.
- b. Exception. A grade given by an instructor in a course, seminar or special course may be changed by the instructor if the original grade was recorded as "Incomplete."
  - 1) Incomplete Request. In certain circumstances that grade of "I" or "incomplete" may be granted to students experiencing extenuating circumstances. Students should initiate such a request with the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies office using the Incomplete Request form, which is to be submitted at least ten days prior to the start of the final exam period.
  - 2) Request Conditions. A request for an incomplete will only be granted to students making sufficient academic progress and experiencing extenuating circumstances. Sufficient academic progress is defined as having approximately 75% of coursework completed prior to the end of the term and maintaining the required minimum grade for passing the course.
  - 3) Approval of Request. If a request for an incomplete is approved, a grade of "I" will be entered on the student's transcript.

- 4) Deadline. Course work must be completed within four weeks from the last date of the semester. Student must continue to attend class by participating weekly in the course by submitting assignments. If a student does not continue to attend by actively participating weekly, and has already reached the maximum allowed absences, student will be withdrawn from the course. If student continues to attend weekly, upon conclusion of the extended incomplete deadline, the instructor will submit the adjusted letter grade to the Registrar for inclusion in the affected student's transcript. If a student fails to make up the work by the deadline, the "I" will automatically convert to a "F". Additional extensions will not be permitted.
- c. Student Application for Change of Grade. A student may apply for a change of grade on the grounds that the grade was awarded contrary to the provisions of the Academic Code, or was the proximate result of discrimination on account of race, religion, national origin, sex, sexual preference, or disability initiated by the faculty member responsible for issuing the grade. The burden of proof is on the student to prove the allegations. Any petition for change of grade under this subsection shall be considered by the Assistant Dean.
- d. Faculty Application for Change of Grade. An instructor may apply to the Assistant Dean for a change of grade upon a showing of good cause. For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" is limited to a clerical error in recording a grade or other similar situation.
5. Repetition of Courses
- a. General Rule. A student who earns academic credit for successful completion of a course may not register for that course again.
- b. Repetition of Required Course. A student must earn a C or above in each required course. A student who receives a C- or below will be required to retake and pass the course(s) in order to graduate. A student will only be permitted to repeat a required course one time. Passing required courses is not a prerequisite to progression to the next semester, however, if a student fails a course which is a prerequisite for an advanced course, the student must successfully complete the prerequisite course before taking the advanced course.
- c. Repetition of Elective Courses. A student who receives an F in an elective course will be required to retake the course, or an alternate elective course, successfully. A student will only be permitted to take a second elective course one time. Passing elective courses is not a prerequisite to progression to the next semester.

- d. Effect on Student Transcript. A failing grade received by a student shall remain on the student's transcript notwithstanding the subsequent successful completion of the course by the student.
- e. Appeal in Exceptional Cases. In exceptional cases, a student who receives a second failing grade after repeating a course may petition the Assistant Dean for relief. Upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances beyond the student's control, the Assistant Dean may permit the student to repeat the course a third time.

6. Departure from Examination Schedule

- a. General Rule. No student has the right to defer an examination. A student who fails to complete an examination when scheduled will receive a failing grade on the examination unless the examination is properly deferred pursuant to this section.
- b. When Deferral is Permitted. A student is permitted to defer an examination only for good cause. Examples of good cause include serious personal injury or illness; serious illness, injury or death of a member of the student's immediate family; and any other similar event beyond the student's control which prevents the student from sitting for the examination when scheduled. Because students are given materials showing the due date of final examinations, an examination will not be deferred because a student is enrolled in two courses having examinations on the same day.
- c. Procedure for Deferral of Examination. Students seeking to defer an examination must submit a Dean's Action Request Form and provide documentation supporting the request to the Assistant Dean. Permission to defer an examination must be obtained prior to the scheduled examination day, unless the cause for deferral occurs on the examination day, and is due to circumstances beyond the student's control. The affected student shall notify the Assistant Dean of such cause for deferral as soon as possible. If the Assistant Dean grants permission to defer an examination, the Registrar shall notify the instructor whose examination will be deferred. The affected faculty member may prepare a new examination to be given at the make-up time for the student whose examination has been deferred.

- d. Timing of Deferred Examinations. Deferred examinations must be taken 1) on the scheduled examination make-up date for that semester 2) at a time approved by the Assistant Dean or Dean of Students or 3) at the next time a regularly scheduled examination is given for that course. Students who fail to sit for a make-up examination within the time period prescribed by the previous sentence shall receive a failing grade in the course in question.

D. Attendance

1. Attendance Standards

- a. General Rule. In a 3-credit course, 3 absences are permitted.

- b. Attendance.

- (i) Students must establish attendance in the online course by posting an introduction in the course by the first day of class. Thereafter, attendance is measured by a student's active participation in the course.

- (ii) Active participation means submission of assignments, completing quizzes/exams, posting on the discussion thread or any other activities required in the course in a given week. If a student does not submit any work in the assigned week, they will be marked absent. Merely logging into the course and viewing the materials is not considered active participation and will count as an absence.

- (iii) Attendance during the first week of classes is mandatory. Absence during the first week of classes will result in a withdrawal from the course. After attending in the first week, students may not miss more than 20% of class attendance in each course. Therefore, in a students are permitted 3 absences in a 3-credit course. In a summer accelerated 3-credit MJ course, each "week" is equivalent to two "weeks".

- (iv) A student who adds a course during the add-drop week shall not be counted as "absent" for the day or days missed prior to adding the course. Student must immediately attend the next class session to avoid a withdrawal from the course.

- c. Absences. An absence constitutes any week in which all required submissions for that week are not completed. Simply logging into class is not attendance. If, after logging into the course a student has not participated in any manner, including, but not limited to, the discussion forum, projects, and/or quizzes and exams in any given week, the student will be marked absent for that week. If no participation continues after the allowed number of absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course.

- d. Penalty for Violation of Attendance Rule. Any student who misses more than the permitted number of absences for any course will be withdrawn from the course and will not be permitted to take the final examination or submit additional work. The Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) shall notify the Registrar in writing, and the Registrar shall enter an “involuntary withdrawal” (IW) on the student's transcript. The student will be responsible to pay for the course(s). If the student is a financial aid recipient, the student must contact the Financial Aid Office. The student may retake the course(s), or substituted course(s), as deemed appropriate by the student’s academic advisor, during the next scheduled offering. A student who is involuntarily withdrawn the subsequent semester from the same course(s), or substituted course(s), will receive a failing grade for the course(s) and will not be permitted to repeat the course again and will be subject to academic dismissal from the program.
- e. Appeal in Exceptional Cases. In exceptional cases, a student who receives a failing grade due to excessive absences may petition the Assistant Dean for relief. Upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances beyond the student's control, the Assistant Dean may remove the involuntary withdrawal (IW) and grant a withdrawal (W) in the course.

2. Leave of Absence

- a. Withdrawal Presumed. A student who fails to apply for leave of absence, and who fails to attend regularly scheduled classes for a period of more than the permitted number of absences, is presumed to have withdrawn from the currently registered cours(es). A student who has completed a leave of absence for more than the permitted maximum leaves of absence as defined in this handbook, is presumed to have withdrawn from the Law School.
- b. Leave of Absence. A student who must drop all classes for good cause, such as death or illness of a family member, job change, active duty assignment in the armed forces or other good cause, may apply for leave of absence for personal reasons for a period of up to one year. A leave of absence will be granted freely, subject to the limitations for medical leave of absence set out in Section (D)(3) herein.
- c. Ineligible to Take Course While on Leave. A student may not register for any course work while on leave of absence, but may make up any deferred final examinations and complete any incomplete course papers or directed research papers outstanding on the date the leave of absence was granted.

- d. Term. Leave of absence will normally be granted for a period of one academic semester. If a student on leave of absence wishes to extend the leave of absence for an additional semester, the student must submit a written request for extension together with evidence to support the need for the extension. A maximum of three (3) consecutive leave of absences may be permitted. A student who does not register for any course work after a third consecutive leave of absence will be withdrawn from the program.
- e. Tuition. If a student takes a leave of absence from the degree program, the tuition charges will be prorated starting from the date that the Bursar's Office receives instructions from the Graduate, International, Compliance, and Legal Studies (GICLS) Office.
- f. Effect on Period Within Which Degree Must Be Obtained. leave of absence does not toll the requirement for completion of legal studies set out in Sections (III)(B)(1)(g), (III)(B)(2)(h), and (III)(B)(3)(g) of the Student Handbook/Academic Code.

3. Medical Leave of Absence.

- a. General Rule. Any student may apply for medical leave of absence from the Law School for good cause. "Good cause" includes treatment by a residential treatment center, a physician, a psychologist or a drug counselor for substance abuse. An application should be submitted on a Dean's Action Request form, together with a letter from a physician, psychologist or drug counselor, stating that medical leave of absence is in the best interest of the student's physical or psychological well-being.
- b. Term. Medical leave of absence will normally be granted for a period of one academic semester. If a student on medical leave of absence wishes to extend the leave of absence for an additional semester, the student must submit a written request for extension, together with a physician's, psychologist's or drug counselor's letter stating that an extension would be in the best interest of the student.

The Dean of Students or Assistant Dean may file a complaint at any time without regard to the passage of time.

2. Registrar's Duties, Forwarding of Complaint

The Dean shall have absolute discretion with respect to any determination made pursuant to this section.
- b. Temporary Suspension. Nothing in this Code shall limit the power of the Dean to suspend a student temporarily.

D. Netiquette Policy

Students will be communicating with administrators, faculty members, and fellow students across the nation and globe, some of whom students will never meet in person. The law school community expects its members to respect each other's individual dignity at all times, including when communicating by email. Students can achieve better communication – and results – with special sensitivity to the effect of words and actions upon the recipient of a message. Please follow commonly accepted email protocols and behaviors when emailing the school or other students. A guide to these is set forth below.

1. DO NOT USE ALL CAPS in your emails. It is considered SHOUTING. DON'T SHOUT!
2. Use symbols for emphasis, rather than CAPS. For example: "That *is* what negligence means." Use underscores for underlining. For example, "_ War and Peace_ is my favorite book."
3. Do not use smileys or other emojis.

4. Think before you email. If in doubt, leave it out. If not sure, wait overnight. If you are upset, wait overnight to send emotional responses to messages.
5. Do not attack or insult another, even if it is meant as a joke.
6. Make an effort to spell check or proofread before you send.
7. Do not use text messaging style, for example: U-WLB-Vry-Gr-8-FL; LOL; BRB; IMHO; OMG.
8. If you have a technological problem, call or email Delaware Law School's Technical Support or contact Canvas tech support. Please be kind and courteous, even if you are frantic. You will get help just as fast and the exchange will be more pleasant for all.
9. You should assume that your email is not secure. Never put in a mail message anything you would not put on a postcard.
10. Respect the copyright on material that you reproduce. Almost every country has copyright laws.
11. If you are forwarding or re-posting a message you have received, do not change the wording. If the message was a personal message to you and you are re-posting to a group, you should ask permission first. You may shorten the message and quote only relevant parts, but be sure you give proper attribution.
12. A good rule of thumb: Be conservative in what you send and liberal in what you receive. You should not send heated messages even if you are provoked. On the other hand, if you do get inflamed, good judgment dictates that you not respond.
13. In general, it is a good idea to check your mail subjects in reverse chronological order before responding to a message. Sometimes a person who asks you for help (or clarification) will send another message which says "Never Mind". Also make sure that any message you respond to was directed to you. You might be cc:ed rather than the primary recipient.
14. Always include your name and student ID number on an email.
15. Make things easy for the recipient. Many mailers strip header information which includes your return address. Be sure to include a line or two at the end of your message with contact information. You can create this file ahead of time and add it to the end of your messages (a "signature" file.) (Some mailers do this automatically.)
16. If you include a signature, keep it short; no longer than 4 lines.
17. Be careful when you reply; you may actually be replying to a group or "reply to all." Do not reply to emails sent to you from the law school that instruct you not to reply.
18. Avoid forwarding chain mail of any kind. This is considered spam, and it clogs inboxes.
19. Take care when forwarding email. Be sure you have permission from the sender to circulate.
20. Watch cc's when replying. Don't continue to include people if the messages have become a 2-way conversation.

21. Remember that you communicate across the globe. If you hope for an immediate response, the recipient might be asleep when it arrives. Give them a chance to wake up and login before assuming the mail did not arrive.
22. It's courteous to include the word "Long" in the subject header for messages that will take time to read. Over 100 lines is considered "long".
24. Remember that the recipient's culture, language, and humor have different points of reference from your own. Be careful in using slang. Under all circumstances, avoid sarcasm.
26. Be brief, but, when replying to a message, include enough original material to be understood, but no more. Sometimes that will be all of the message; most of the time you can edit out the irrelevant material. Use ellipses or "[deleted]" to indicate redactions.
27. Mail should have a subject heading which reflects the content of the message.
28. Be alert to "phishing," emails that appear to be from a reputable source. These often ask you to supply personal information: address, phone number, even your social security number. Never, ever fall for one of these messages. Call the company first to confirm.
29. Be extraordinarily careful when downloading "free" software, collections of emoticons, weather bugs, and the like. These almost always contain spyware (to report to others what you are doing on the Internet) and/or viruses. Often these viruses do not activate for some time, long after you forgot downloading something interesting.
30. If you do not have time, reply briefly to an e-mail, letting the sender know that it was received, even if you will send a longer reply later.
31. Know how large a message you are sending – and how large an attachment. For large attachments, consider zip software to compress the material.
32. Do not send unsolicited information.
33. Delivery receipts and vacation programs are invasive and especially problematic when sent to mailing lists; many consider delivery receipts an invasion of privacy. In short, do not use them.

B. Applicability of Act to Record

1. The Act applies to educational records defined as those records which are directly related to a student and are maintained by Widener or by a party acting for Widener.
2. The term "educational records" does not include:

- a. personal files of faculty and administrative personnel which are in the maker's sole possession and not accessible or revealed to any other person except a temporary substitute.
- b. Widener University Campus Safety records which are kept separate from education records, are maintained for campus safety, student discipline and law enforcement purposes only, and are available only to the responsible University administrators and law enforcement officials.
- c. records relating to an individual who is employed by Widener which are made and maintained in the normal course of business, relate exclusively to the individual in that individual's capacity as an employee, and are not available for use for any other purpose.

The exceptions to the consent requirement include the following:
  - a. Widener University employees with legitimate educational interests in seeing the records in question. This includes those Widener officials, such as faculty and administration, as well as clerical employees managing student record information, who act in the student's educational interest and have a demonstrated need to know the contents of such records. 3. Each office which maintains education records shall keep with the records of each student a form which lists, with exceptions stated below, all individuals, agencies or organizations which have requested or obtained access to such student's education records. 1. In General.

- a. Parents' financial records and related parental financial information shall not be released to students.
- b. Subject to certain conditions, confidential evaluations of students placed in education records prior to January 1, 1975, shall not be released to students. All other education records of a particular student shall be open for inspection by that student, unless access is restricted under paragraph (3) of this section.
- c. A student may waive his or her right of access to confidential evaluations relating to admission to any educational institution, application for employment, and receipt of honors; provided, however, that the student must, upon request, be notified of the name of each person who has submitted such a confidential evaluation; such evaluations may be used only for the purpose intended; and a waiver may not be required as a precondition to admission to Widener or receipt from Widener of financial aid or any other services or benefits.

A waiver under this Section may be revoked, in writing, with respect to any actions occurring after the revocation.

2. Procedures for Access to Records.

- a. A request by a student (or the parent of a dependent student) to inspect his or her education records shall be made to the office which maintains such records. Each office maintaining education records shall designate a person to receive and process student

- c. After reviewing his or her records, a student has a right to challenge the contents of such records as being inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student. Unless otherwise established by the school/college in which a student has matriculated, a student may not challenge the correctness of a grade which has been assigned to the performance of the student in a course, but may challenge the accuracy of the recording of the grade.
- d. Upon deciding that some aspect of his or her record(s) is inaccurate, the student shall so inform the designated person in the office where his or her records are maintained and shall attempt to resolve the problem through informal discussion with such person and the person in charge of that office.
- e. If no agreement is reached through informal discussions, the student may submit in writing to the Assistant Dean, a rebuttal, a request for a hearing, specifying the record or records alleged to be inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate. If the Assistant Dean's review of the hearing request and file also does not result in an agreement, the Assistant Dean shall appoint as hearing officer a University official with no direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. Unless the student withdraws his request or requests a delay, the hearing shall be held within forty-five (45) days after receipt of the student's request. At the hearing, the student shall be given an opportunity to present evidence in support of the challenge. The impartial official conducting the hearing shall render his/her decision in writing within thirty (30) days after the hearing. ## VII. POLICY FOR ADDRESSING ISSUES OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

A. Statement of Policy.

1. It is the policy of Widener University (“University”) to provide reasonable academic accommodations necessary to afford equal opportunity and accessibility in all University programs for qualified students with professionally verified disabilities. It is further the policy of the University to provide reasonable accommodations necessary to afford equal opportunity and accessibility for qualified individuals with professionally verified disabilities in employment.
2. The University recognizes both its legal obligations to make reasonable accommodations designed to provide overall educational program and employment opportunity accessibility for qualified persons with disabilities as well as the benefits that may be offered from the skills and talents of those with disabilities. In keeping with these principles, the University seeks to accommodate qualified students and employees with disabilities on an individual basis based upon specific information and assessment data documented by a qualified professional. Faculty members also play an important role in ensuring equal educational opportunity and access for students and must recognize that modifications can be made in the classroom or in teaching style to accommodate individual students without affecting academic integrity. However, while the University will strive to accommodate students as fully as possible, reasonable accommodations do not include measures which fundamentally alter an academic program, which place an undue financial or administrative burden or hardship on the University, or which pose a safety risk to the individual or others. In the admissions and employment application processes, the University does not discriminate on the basis of disability, and any information concerning a student or employee applicant’s disability provided during the admissions or application process will be on a voluntary or optional basis and will be kept confidential in accordance with applicable law.
3. Following admission of a student applicant or the extension of an employment offer to an applicant for employment, the University invites and encourages voluntary self-identification by individuals with disabilities for purposes of verifying the disability and identifying the reasonable accommodations that the University will provide.
4. It is the responsibility of disabled individuals who seek an accommodation to identify themselves to the appropriate University representative. This Policy shall apply to all schools and colleges of the University and all employees of the University.

Accommodations are intended to be effective and reasonable; they may not be exactly what the Qualified Person with a Disability requests.
  - (g) “Request for Academic Accommodation” means any request made by a student for an accommodation covered by Section 4(d) hereof.
  - (h) “Request for Employment Accommodation” means any request made by an employee for an accommodation to enable the employee to perform the essential functions of his or her position.

The verification must reflect the individual's present level of functioning of the major life activity affected by the disability. The cost of obtaining the professional verification shall be borne by the individual. If the initial verification is incomplete or inadequate to determine the present extent of the disability and appropriate accommodations, the University shall have the discretion to require supplemental assessment of a physical disability. The cost of the supplemental assessment shall be borne by the individual. If the University requires an additional assessment for purposes of obtaining a second professional opinion, then the University shall bear any cost not covered by any third party payor.

(e) Verification of Learning Disability or Attention Deficit Disorder. A student with a learning disability or attention deficit disorder must provide recent professional testing and evaluation results which reflect the individual's present level of processing information and present achievement level. The cost of obtaining the professional verification shall be borne by the student. The assessment must provide data which supports the Requests for Academic Accommodation. In the event that a student requests an academic accommodation that is not supported by the data in the assessment or, if the initial verification is incomplete or inadequate to determine the extent of the disability, then it is incumbent on the student to obtain supplemental testing or assessment at the student's expense. If the University requires an additional assessment for purposes of obtaining a second professional opinion, then the University shall bear any cost not covered by any third party payor.

In arriving at such schedule, the Evaluator may consult with appropriate faculty and administrative staff of the University and professional consultants to the University.

(d) Reasonable academic accommodations designed to provide equal opportunity to students with disabilities may be made in the following three areas:

(ii) Examinations. Examination accommodations will be made as necessary to minimize the effect of a particular disability. Any accommodations in the conduct of examinations which alter the form of the examination shall be made in consultation with the faculty member or instructor of the course for which the accommodation is sought. Additional forms of examination accommodations include, without limitation, allowing extra time to complete exams, allowing alternate test formats and permitting a student to take an exam in an alternate location to allow for use of needed equipment.

(iii) Auxiliary Aids. To the extent feasible, the University shall either provide or assist students with disabilities in acquiring educational auxiliary aids designed to enable them to participate fully in the academic program and may do so by contacting existing resources, such as federal, state and community agencies, private charitable organizations, and individual volunteers.

(e) The Evaluator shall provide the schedule of accommodations to the individual requesting accommodations. In cases involving academic accommodations, the schedule of accommodations will be provided to the student on a form(s) which the student will be responsible for providing to the appropriate instructor(s).

(f) Each individual receiving accommodations shall meet upon request with the Evaluator to review the effectiveness of the accommodations listed on the schedule. Each individual shall immediately report any dissatisfaction with an accommodation to the Evaluator, who shall attempt to resolve any such dissatisfaction. If resolution cannot be achieved, the individual may file a grievance in accordance with Section 6 of this Policy. Additionally, the schedule shall be subject to review and possible termination upon any change in the nature of the individual's disability or the individual's failure to properly utilize the services provided.

(g) Services for individuals who improperly procure accommodations under this Policy will be immediately terminated. The Grievance Officer may, but shall not be required to, form a committee of three individuals, including the Grievance Officer, to meet with the aggrieved individual, either at the time of such initial meeting or within a reasonable period of time thereafter. The other members of the committee shall be selected by the Grievance Officer in his/her sole discretion. It is intended, but not required, that one or both of the other members of the committee shall have education, background, experience and/or training in fields applicable to the grievance at issue. The Grievance Officer and/or the committee shall conduct such investigation and the Grievance Officer may assign such duties to the committee members as the Grievance Officer shall deem appropriate in the circumstances.

(d) Within fifteen (15) days after the later to occur of the initial meeting between the aggrieved individual and the Grievance Officer or the meeting between the aggrieved individual and the committee formed by the Grievance Officer, the

(d) Effect of Formal Remedies. Nothing in this Policy is intended to prevent an individual from pursuing formal legal remedies or resolution through local, state or federal agencies or the courts. However, if an individual so proceeds, such individual cannot pursue University-based dispute resolution and any University-based proceeding may be terminated immediately in the sole discretion of the University. The University may in its discretion conduct or continue to conduct its own investigation of the matter.

VIII. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

Widener University's computing resources are managed by the Office of Information Technology Services (ITS). ITS provides central computing resources, including Internet access via LAN and wireless, numerous lab-based academic-specific software applications, residential computing connections, and technical support. ITS maintains general-purpose labs on all campuses, with two on the Chester campus and one each on the Wilmington and Harrisburg campuses. Students are issued a network login and password to access the computers in the general labs. ITS maintains several computer classrooms throughout the university and provides support for Main Campus classrooms equipped with multimedia presentations (DE and HB classrooms are supported by Media Services).

ITS also provides CampusCruiser as the web-based information portal for the university. Widener University provides each student with an e-mail account and other multiple services on CampusCruiser. All "official" university correspondence will be sent to student's CampusCruiser e-mail accounts. It is the student's responsibility to routinely check their e-mail. CampusCruiser allows the university community to access personal and group calendars, e-mail, class schedules, and campus events. CampusCruiser also allows users to register for classes and review personal academic information such as GPA, financial status, and more.

Student Technical Support: The university is dedicated to providing both commuter and residential students technical support through the ITS Student Technical Support program. Students are hired and trained extensively by the ITS department to be the first line of support for students experiencing technical problems with their computers. This includes virus issues, spyware/adware removal, software incompatibility, hardware issues, and problems connecting to the university's network. A walk-in support office is also available to students throughout the week, located in the ITS offices.

For additional information about the Student Computing Support Center visit the Student Computing virtual office in CampusCruiser.

X. Veterans Education Benefits Policy

Veterans Education Benefits

The Registrar Office is the office that certifies enrollment to the Department of Veterans Affairs. Please provide a copy of your certificate of eligibility to have your enrollment reported. Widener does participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program.

The Yellow Ribbon Program

The Yellow Ribbon Program, part of the Post-9/11 GI Bill, is a voluntary program that allows universities to fund additional tuition expenses exceeding the amount of the core benefit provided by the Post-9/11 GI Bill, which is determined based on the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. Institutions participating in the Yellow Ribbon Program can contribute up to 50% of the expenses that exceed the base benefit, and the Department of Veterans Affairs then matches the amount provided by the institution. Delaware Law will fund up to ten JD students on each campus with an unlimited contribution per student, not to exceed the cost of tuition. Students must provide a copy of your Certificate of Eligibility approved for the Post-9/11 GI Bill at the rate of 100% with at least 5 months of eligibility remaining. Students participating in the Yellow Ribbon program will pay nothing out of pocket towards their tuition for the fall and spring semesters. Summer expenses will be determined by how much of the maximum award was used during the fall and spring. After the base award, the Law School and VA will split the balance of the tuition due. The contribution will be paid by grant or scholarship with any previously awarded scholarship funds constituting the school's Yellow Ribbon contribution to that student.

Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018

A student who anticipates receiving educational assistance under chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or chapter 33, Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits is provided with the opportunity to enroll in and attend classes, without any late fee being imposed, even if the student's anticipated educational assistance from the VA Educational Benefits has not yet arrived at the University. In addition, a student will be able to utilize all University student services, including the library. This policy is in place for students who have provided to Widener University a certificate of eligibility for entitlement (this may include a Statement of Benefits obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) website e-Benefits, or a VAF 28-1905 form for chapter 31 authorization purposes for the upcoming term. The policy may cease once the VA has made payment to the University OR 90 days after the University has received the certificate of eligibility and certified tuition and fees. For Chapter 31 and Chapter 33 Educational Benefit recipients, Widener University requires students to complete a form and possibly provide additional information to the VA Certifying Official so their certification of enrollment is accurate.
